

In the discussions of the ACD, the approval of the draft of the final statement of the conference was emphasized
Cultures are close in Asia

The chairman of the International Council of Isfahan Chamber of Commerce, in the last official meeting to approve the final draft of the conference statement, attended by the representatives of the chambers of commerce of the ACD member states stated that an effort was made to exchange knowledge between them, where competent and rich countries with advanced technology are among them as member. Nevertheless, some countries don't have the proper growth speed, so we came to the conclusion in the technology meeting to share experiences to improve their knowledge.

Mohammad Reza Golahmmad, referring to the holding of the tourism round-table, which was held on the sidelines of the conference, added: As you know, Asia has a huge tourism potential which could be a great advantage in the trend of booting our economy. Hope this conference has showcased the means of speeding economic growth in Asia.

He, stating that the Asian nations are culturally close to each other, said: The members countries have very good capital, knowledge and experience and can collaborate to gain regional power. The tourism knowledge and database available with the chambers of commerce must be shared with tour leaders to increase movements among the ADC members, resulting a growth in the economy.

Hoping that such events run in the right path, he stated: Our goal has always been to share our experiences with others and increase interactions. We hope that with the Secretary General's actions, there will be no war between the governments in the future and everyone will be in the best welfare and social situation.

He noted: We are under one roof, where the stronger it is, the more security we will have. Unfortunately, today the countries of the region have not been able to protect Palestine, a member of our community, though we are capable enough. The issue with Palestine must be the concern of all the countries of the Asian region. We also thank the representative of this country for attending this conference, considering the conditions in his country.

We have plans in terms of culture and tourism;

Pornchai Danvivatana, Secretary of the Asia Cooperation Dialogue, also stated that Iran is going to host a tourism event soon, and said: We hope that good information will reach all members in this area so that we can organize another very good meeting. Currently, based on the ACD program headline, all types of tourism have been described, and based on that, we can do forward-looking strategic work.

He stated: We have a plan in cultural and tourism fields that we hope to be able to present well. In this direction, the president of the Iran Chamber of Commerce with his management team should pave the way in this direction. This issue should be addressed to the ACD member countries regarding cooperation. Joint tourism and improvement of the whole situation will help the idea to be materialized.

Pakistan is ready to hold the third ACD summit;

Esfandiar Khan, the president of the Pakistan Chamber of Commerce, also expressed his gratitude to the Isfahan Chamber of Commerce for the hospitality, and said: The Pakistan Chamber of Commerce is ready to hold the third ACD conference, and I hope it will take place soon.

He added: If we can establish an online platform, like a website, where all suppliers from different countries have active membership and presence, we will create a big event, through which the trading parties in the member countries will interact. A system should also be formed to validate these suppliers and buyers.

We hosted representatives of 22 countries;

Furthermore, Amir Keshani, the president of Isfahan Chamber of Commerce, expressed that the chamber managed to host representatives of 22 countries in these two days, and hoped the aftermath cooperation of this event, where we will witness good things happen.

Hamzeh, the representative of Malaysia in this meeting, believed that the Isfahan Chamber of Commerce has drawn the ACD axis and roadmap well.
