

:The city of Isfahan hosted the mayor of Kapan, Armenia

Beginning of cultural and economic cooperation between Isfahan and Kapan, Armenia

Beginning of cultural and economic cooperation between Isfahan and Kapan, Armenia

George Parsian, the mayor of Kapan, Armenia, after visiting the triple exhibition of elevator, door and window and building technology in a joint meeting with the presence of the representative of the office of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Isfahan province, the director of marketing and international relations of Isfahan Chamber of Commerce, the head of international affairs of Isfahan Municipality, And the CEO of Isfahan Exhibition Company, while expressing his interest in developing cooperation with the city of Isfahan, said: We are ready to host Isfahan traders and manufacturers in Kapan exhibitions.

Referring to the industrial subgroups needed in Armenia and the considerable industrial, cultural, and production capacity of Isfahan, he added: the room for mutual cooperation between the two countries, especially the two cities of Kapan and Isfahan, is an opportunity that can be used in the best way.

The director of marketing and international relations of the Isfahan Chamber of Commerce in this meeting, while welcoming the mayor of Kapan and his delegation, and pointing out the centuries-old presence of Armenians in Isfahan and the peaceful atmosphere between the people of Isfahan and the country of Armenia, called for the development of cultural and commercial relations between the two provinces of Isfahan and Syunik province in Armenia.

Referring to Armenia's membership in the Eurasian Economic Union, he considered Syunik province and Kapan city to be important and strategic in the development of trade exchanges between Iran and Eurasian countries.

Saeed Ebrahimi considered mining, agriculture, and transportation industries to be the most important fields of cooperation between the two regions and expressed hope that with the coordination of Kapan Municipality and the Armenians people in Isfahan, the cultural and economic relations between the two cities can be further developed.

Mayor of Kapan and his accompanying delegation visited Isfahan Exhibition Center, Healthcare City, Science and Research Town and the Jolfa neighborhood during their trip to Iran and Isfahan.