

Expansion of cooperation between Isfahan and Greece in the field of tourism and transportation

The opportunities and capacities of Isfahan in the field of tourism and transportation industry were examined and consulted with the presence of a business delegation from Greece in the Isfahan Chamber of Commerce.

The Chairman of the Tourism and Handicrafts Commission and a member of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce in this meeting said: "In Isfahan, there are many producers in various fields whose products can be exported to other countries. Also, in the field of tourism, there is an opportunity for further cooperation in Isfahan, and we are interested in expanding our relations with other countries, including Greece, in this field. There are many opportunities for cooperation and interaction in the fields of handicrafts and carpet too, in which Isfahan takes the first place in Iran".

Mojgan Izadi further noted: "Currently, we are trying to launch Isfahan's exclusive airline so that we can have direct flights from Isfahan to other countries. Isfahan airport also has the necessary international standards to host foreign flights and use the cargo terminal. Isfahan is a city of peace and the followers of different religions have coexisted in Isfahan throughout history.

Foteini Xenou, the CEO of Euro Cargo Greece, also said in this meeting: "Our Company is located in the largest port in Greece, which connects Greece to Italy. With more than thirty years of experience in the field of international transportation, we can provide many services to the clients. We provide various services in the field of transportation and tourism. Our road transport services allow customers to access the whole of Europe without any restrictions".

In the continuation of this meeting, economic activists, managers of tourism agencies and the health tourism sector, as well as representatives of Isfahan's transportation industry, introduced their services and opportunities for cooperation with Euro Cargo and discussed the possibilities expanding cooperation in between.
