

Common topics of ACD member countries should be pursued

The Secretary General of the Asian Cooperation Dialogue (ACD) said: The issues agreed by the member countries should be followed up through the publication of the results of the meeting.

Pornchai Danvivatana, Secretary General of ACD, said in the opening ceremony of the 2nd conference of the member chambers of commerce, saying that he was happy to be able to participate in this conference as the Secretary General of ACD, and said: I am very grateful to all those who provided an opportunity for this conference held in Isfahan. Referring to the holding of the 1st Conference of ACD member chambers of commerce in 2021 in Türkiye, he said: This meeting was held by the Union of Chambers of Commerce in Türkiye under the title TOBB, and at the end, the need to expand such meetings to reach an agreement was emphasized.

The Secretary General of the ACD added: "In order to be able to continue the dialogue between the 35 ACD countries as well as the inter-regional dialogue, it is effective to hold such a conferences."

Emphasizing that in terms of communication with the creation of standards and laws, we, the members of the Asian Cooperation Dialogue, should have more exchanges with each other, he said: There are various issues in this relation and the vital role of chambers of commerce in this field is very important.

The Secretary General pointing the possibility of holding the next meeting of the ACD Summit in Qatar, stated: Apart from the fact that I am interested in the continuation of such meetings, we also want the involved people to take a deep look at the problems that exist in this matter so that we can solve the problems with cooperation.

Pornchai Danvivatana continued: If each of the chambers of commerce declares their readiness to be the third host and volunteer, we can finally reach a consensus.

He pointed out: We must be able to improve multilateral cooperation in order to make such conferences a success, so it is necessary to present the results of the agreements in the form of a report to the ACD and to solve the problems by improving the conditions in order to make progress on the path of development.
