

Holding the first meeting of Isfahan-Pakistan Joint Trade Committee

The first meeting of the joint committee of Isfahan and Pakistan Chamber of Commerce was held due to the high commercial potential in Isfahan

According to the public relations report of Isfahan Chamber of Commerce, the first meeting of the joint committee of Isfahan and Pakistan Chamber of Commerce was held with the aim of examining the fields of joint cooperation and development of bilateral trade and introducing the members of the committee in the presence of Ashfaq Ahmed, the vice-chairman of the Federation of Pakistan Chambers of Commerce and the accompanied delegation and the representatives of Isfahan Chamber of Commerce.

In this meeting, the vice president of the Federation of Pakistan Chambers of Commerce and his companions, referring to the third attendance in the Isfahan Chamber of Commerce, stated that there are high commercial potentials in Isfahan.

Sayed Vahid Dezfuli, member of the board of representatives and head of the Agriculture and Related Industries Commission of Isfahan Chamber of Commerce, announced Isfahan's readiness to develop trade and exhibition relations with Pakistan and said: We are ready to export such products as apples and dates and other agricultural produces and counter-trade them with mangoes and other products of Pakistan. We request a representatives of Pakistan to allocate a space to set up a permanent exhibition for Iranian products in Pakistan.

In this meeting, a joint committee was formed in the fields of petrochemical products, agriculture, gold and precious stones, and dairy products. Also, agreed to