

Business forum to explore trade and investment opportunities between Esfahan and Belarus

In a meeting with the presence of the Ambassador of Belarus in Iran, the economic and commercial cooperation opportunities between Isfahan and Belarus were discussed.

According to the public relations report of Isfahan Chamber of Commerce, in this meeting, which was held with the presence of a member of the Board of Representatives and the head of the trade, services and communications commission, head of Marketing and International Relations of Isfahan Chamber of Commerce and the economic advisor of Belarusian Embassy in Iran, of Isfahan Chamber of Commerce, Ahmad Pezandeh, while pointing out the potentials of Esfahan's economy, expressed hope that due to the industrial nature of Belarus, good interactions can be established between the parties.

The Ambassador of Belarus in Iran also pointed to the long-standing cooperation and friendship between Iran and Belarus and said: The government of Belarus has been very interested in developing commercial and economic interactions with Iran.

Mentioning the purpose of his presence in Isfahan was to develop the economic exchanges between the two sides, the ambassador stated that Belarus has an advanced economy and large factories in the field of heavy machinery, agricultural machinery, road construction, large grain collection companies, technological and optical equipment manufacturing factories, chemical industries and household appliances in Belarus.

Pointing to the advanced chemical and wood industries of this country, he said: MDF and Russian wood industries have a great reputation in Iran and we are interested in cooperating in these fields with Isfahan.

He further expressed on bilateral economic and trade cooperation and announced the readiness of Belarus to import Iranian products, especially traditional products and fresh fruits and vegetables and dried fruits.

Also, in this meeting, the director of marketing and international relations of the Isfahan Chamber of Commerce said: "Several factories in Isfahan import some raw required materials for their produce from Belarus, and facilitating trade relations with this country is very important." He emphasized the necessity of Belarusian trade authorities' help to develop the export of Isfahan products to that country.

He added: Currently, there is a high demand for some products from Belarus. Also, the Isfahan Chamber of Commerce can establish the necessary interactions to supply the raw needed by Isfahan's MDF production companies from Belarus in materials exchange for the required produces by the sides.

Re-establishing a direct flight from Iran to Belarus, using the cargo capacity of Shahid Beheshti Airport in Isfahan to transport cargo, establishing the interaction of TC Bank of Belarus with one of the Belarusian credit institutions in order to ensure businessmen to establish business relations with the support of the Belarusian government, among other things.